

Series: Savoring the Savior
The Gospel According to Mark
(An Introduction to the WORD become flesh)
Part Two
Selected Scriptures

MBC:AM; 03-04-12; N02-02

Introduction:

1. Is Our English Bible Reliable?

- The Doctrine of Revelation: Psalm 19:1,2; Romans 1:18-23; 2:14-16
- The Doctrine of Inspiration: II Timothy 3:16,17; II Peter 1:19,20
- The Canon of Scripture
- The Verbal, Plenary Inspiration of Scripture. II Timothy 3:16,17; II Peter 1:20,21
- The Doctrine of Illumination
- Historicity: Galatians 1:6-9
- BIBLIOLOGY:
 - 1.) Authority.
 - 2.) Inerrancy:
Infallibility.
 - 3.) Clarity.
 - 4.) Necessity.
 - 5.) Sufficiency. Ephesians 1:15-23
- Bible Versions: Word for word vs. Thought for thought.
- The Historical, Grammatical Interpretation of Scripture.
Hebrews 4:12
John 1:1,2,12,14

2. What is the Gospel?

- A Strict Interpretation: I Corinthians 15:3,4
- Why Four Gospels?
 1. Matthew –
 2. Mark –
 3. Luke –
 4. John –

3. Who was John Mark?

- His Name:
- His Background:
- His Training:
- His “Mark” on the New Testament Church:

4. What is the Gospel According to Mark?

- The Time of Mark’s Writing:
- The Style of Mark’s Writing:
- The Theme of Mark’s Writing:
- The Scope of Mark’s Writing:
- The Christ of Mark’s Writing:

5. What is the Gospel According to YOU?

Moment of Decision: