Introduction:

1. The GRIEF: (Mark 16:1-3)

- Question: What sorrows or grief’s do you carry with you every day? Are you willing to bring them to the cross and empty tomb?
- Question: What is the first thing on your mind when you waken every morning?
- Question: What expectations do you have as you approach the Tomb?
- Question: What is the stone or obstacle in your life that is too big for you to move?
- Question: Who are you looking to to move great obstacles from your life?

2. The GLORY: (Mark 16:4-8)

- Question: Where is your attention focused? Backward, Inward, Outward or Upward?
- Question: When large, impossible obstacles are removed from your life who and how do you give the credit and the glory?
- Question: Upon entering the empty tomb and coming to understand the message and power of the resurrection are you alarmed or is your faith encouraged?
- Question: What is the power of the gospel to you?
- Question: What is the only natural, normal response to hearing the gospel and receiving it for yourself?
- Question: As a true believer where is Jesus right now in your life? Does that bring comfort and courage to you?
- Question: Would you say that most of the time you are fleeing from the tomb, fearful and afraid or are you boldly approaching the empty tomb with joy, true worship and confidence?
